Ky.¹⁴⁸, and died December 12, 1912 in Barren Co. Ky.¹⁴⁸.

Joshua Davis Pursley died young at the age of 46. He was mortally wounded in the Poplar Springs area by a wild boar hog. His wife Polly was 2nd generation Irish.

Though I don't know all the details of his death, I have recovered some legal documents which state that he lived in pain for a short while after his encounter with the hog, and knew that he was dying. This took place at Christmastime, and he called for all his brothers and sisters to stay with him, around his bedside until his death. They were all there, comforting him until the end, until he died apparently of peritonitis. He had killed and cured hogs for a living.

In the census of 1870, Joshua and Polly are listed as having another child Mary R, who was dead by the census of 1880. In the census of 1900, Polly states that there were originally 8 children, but only 3 survived. She also states that she is originally from Tennessee.
